Lutheran Family Services to Honor Community Leaders

September 19, 2010 (Omaha, Nebraska) – Lutheran Family Services of Nebraska (LFS) will hold its annual “Faith in Action” awards dinner Tuesday, September 20, 2011. The event recognizes those community leaders whose actions demonstrate their commitment to faith-based values and humble service.

Among the honorees this year: Dr. Tom and Nancy Osborne, who will be recognized for setting a lifetime standard of humble servant leadership and for their tremendous commitment of time, talent and treasure to the lives of young people in Nebraska, and beyond.

Matt Davison of Husker Sports Network serves as emcee for the event, which includes dinner and a program of award presentations, honoree videos and acceptance remarks, plus, a message from LFS President and CEO Ruth Henrichs.

Lutheran Family Services of Nebraska is a faith-based, statewide human care organization which impacts over 35,000 individuals, serving from 31 offices in 18 cities in the areas of behavioral health, children services and community services. For information, please visit www.lfsneb.org.

Lutheran Family Services of Nebraska (LFS) is a faith-based, non-profit, multi-service human care organization with more than 30 locations. The organization serves nearly 35,000 people annually through community-based programs in Children Services, Community Services, and Behavioral Health. The work of LFS is supported by caring members of our community whose contributions help make services available for those unable to pay. 87% of all donations go directly to client services.
